

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27

GAMES AND THE FUTURE OF BUSINESS

1:00 – 2:00 pm

Room G06

Ethan Mollick, Associate Professor of Management

How can video games help us understand how to teach, motivate, and perform better?

WHAT BANKRUPTCY CAN (AND CAN'T) DO FOR STRUGGLING CITIES AND TOWNS

2:10 – 3:10 pm

Room G06

Vincent Buccola, Assistant Professor of Legal Studies & Business Ethics

As an increasing number of municipalities large and small find themselves financially strapped, the prospect of overhauling relevant bankruptcy law has come to the fore. This lecture will at once outline an optimistic view of what restructuring law could accomplish for vulnerable localities and confront a hard truth about law's limits in a market-oriented society.
